Poetry Reading: Henry Beissel (Ottawa)

01D05 / June 3, 12 a.m.

08D04 / June 4, 10 a.m.

On Monday, June 3, 2013 at 12 a.m. the Canadian author Henry Beissel will give a reading as part of Professor Kuester's lecture "Canadian Literature – Survival and Beyond" in room 01D05. Beissel will also be reading from his works on Tuesday, June 4, 2013 at 10 a.m. in room 08D04 in Professor Kuester's seminar Long Poems: Contradictions or "New" Genre?

Beissel, who was born in Germany, is an acclaimed dramatist, poet and essayist who has published countless poems and plays. His works have earned Beissel international recognition. His play Inuk and the Sun (1973), e.g., has received numerous awards and was staged in many countries. In one of his most recent works, Coming to Terms with a Child (2011), Beissel is dealing with his life as a child in Nazi Germany. Everyone interested in Beissel's work is welcome to attend the readings in the seminar and lecture.
